

THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE TEACHING OF ISLAM

Paper No 3

(First Half)

2017

Q:1 - Consider it essential that everyone who follows a book, believing it to be revealed, should base his exposition upon that book and should not so extend the scope of his advocacy of his faith as if he is compiling a new book. As it is my purpose today to establish the merits of the..... and to demonstrate its excellence, it is incumbent upon me not to state anything which is not comprehended in.....

1) Bible 2) Hadith 3) Quran

Q: 2 – The first question relates to the natural, moral and spiritual states of man. The Holy Quran has indicated three separate sources of these three states. In other words, it has pointed out three springs out of which these respective states flow: 1.The self that incites to evil. 2. There proving self

What is the third source: 1) Sin 2) Soul of rest 3) Repentance

Q: 3 – God Almighty has set-forth five remedies against unchastely These are: 1) To restrain one's eyes from gazing on those who are outside the prohibited degree; 2)To restrain one's ears from listening to their voices. 3) Descriptions of their good looks; 4) To avoid occasions which might furnish incitement toward this vice; 5) To control oneself during the period of celibacy through fasting;

From which surah are these verses taken? 1) Al Noor 2) AlNisa 3) AlSaff

Q: 4 – Do not devour each other's substance through deceit and falsehood, nor offer your wealth as a bribe to the authorities, that you may deliberately acquire a part of other people's wealth through injustice. Make over the trusts to those entitled to them. Allah does not love those who are dishonest. Give full measure when you measure out, and weigh out with a true balance.

Which topic are these verses? 1) Honesty 2) Falsehood 3) Cruelty

Q: 5 – Say to people that which is good. Let not one people deride another people, haply they may be better than themselves; nor let one group of women deride another, haply the last may be better than the first. Defame not your people nor call them names. Eschew too much suspicion; also spy not, nor backbite one another

From which surah are these verses taken?

1) Bani Israel 2) AlHijrat 3) Al Baqra

Q: 6 – We shall surely try you with somewhat of fear, and hunger, and loss of wealth and lives, and of the fruits of your labour and sometimes your dear children will die; then give glad tidings to the steadfast, who, when a misfortune overtakes them, do not lose heart, but affirm; We belong to God and are His servants and to Him shall we return. Which character are these verses about, taken from The Holy Quran? 1) Patience 2) Sympathy 3) Truthfulness
