After the prize distribution Respected Zia ul Rehman sahib Naib Sadr majlis Ansarullah UK delivered the final and concluding speech to conclude the Ijtema. He started his speech with the saying of Promised Messiah in Persian and went on to elaborate the aims and purposes of the advent of Promised Messiah. He mentioned that this is the theme of the year that we learn more and more about the aims and objectives of the advent of promised Missiah. He touched upon tow basic things which he said that he will focus on in his speech. He mentioned that we all should be thankful to Allah the Almighty that we are member of this blessed jam at. He mentioned that its our responsibility to understand, practice and spread the objectives and aims of Promised Messiah. He mentioned that one of the objectives is that we have love and affection for Prophet Muhammed PBUH and spread his message. He said that if we want to be green branches of this tree which was planted by Promised Messiah then we will have to reflect upon the objective and aims of his advent.

Respected Naib Sadr sahib ended his speech with a quotation from Hazrat Khalifatul Messiah the first and gave lots of prayers for the region and Ansar brothers and he also praised the Ijtema committee to putting this Ijtema together. At the end he reiterated that we need to understand and reflect the understanding of the advent to of promised Messiah though our action. At the end he led the audience in silent prayer and in this was this regional annual Ijtema of Majlis

Ansarullah Tahir region concluded. AllhamdolillAha

At the end some group photos were taken with regional majlis amila, with regional Zoma, with Ijtema committee, with winners of the competition.
